

Beware of the "Junk Shop"

Stores which handle only "seconds" "auction-house bargains" or other damaged and germ-laden merchandise should be especially avoided during the hot weather. Deadly and loathsome diseases are prevalent in the localities where the "seconds" and "soiled ends" originate. Don't take any chances.

DEPARTURE OF CITY TICKET AGENT RYF

Popularly Known as "Curly," He Leaves to Take Dignified Position.

After spending four years in the employ of the Phoenix office of the Santa Fe system, Cyrus I. Ryf, the city ticket agent, will leave tomorrow evening for San Francisco, where he will be employed as passenger agent of the Northwestern Pacific in the Ferry building depot. Mr. Ryf's promotion to the dignity of city ticket agent came to him eight months ago, and it has been observed by his friends that there has never been any question of Mr. Ryf's being big enough for the job. They have wanted to know if the job was big enough for Mr. Ryf. The officials of the road evidently think not, since they have given him the offer of the position in San Francisco.

Mr. Ryf will leave a multitude of friends behind him when he takes the train for the coast, and although no one will envy him his good fortune many will regret his departure from a city in which he has established a reputation for courtesy in filling a difficult place. It has been a pleasure to a number of his most intimate friends, however, because of his lack of affiliations with members of the fair sex. It was only yesterday that the mystery of his life was unraveled. It was learned on good authority that a certain young person whose name cannot be divulged at this time will shortly follow Mr. Ryf to San Francisco, there to take up new duties and responsibilities as his life partner. When he was asked to confirm or deny this yesterday, Mr. Ryf's bluntness spoke eloquently of an early marriage, and there is no reason to doubt that he is about to enter into the most sacred of contracts.

When he leaves Phoenix tomorrow the patrons of the Santa Fe will owe him gratitude for his years of service, and he will regret leaving Phoenix because it was in this city that he made his debut as a ticket agent, and had the measure of success which has made him eligible for more difficult and advanced position.

A WEEKLY BATH FOR EVERYONE

Any Resident of Aurora (Ill.) Who Doesn't Take One Is Jailed.

The health authorities of the city of Aurora (Ill.) have just scored a victory which is well worth recording. For some time the death rate of the city has been high, the contagious disease reports long and the general health reports far from encouraging. A large number of the inhabitants of Aurora are Hungarians, Romanians, Lithuanians, Slavs and Mexicans of the laboring classes, and it was among them and in their districts that infection spread and the death rate was high.

So, recently the health authorities, acting in conjunction with the police department, issued an order that every resident of Aurora must take at least one bath per week or be locked up. The police were instructed to see that the order was carried out, and long terms of imprisonment were promised to any who dared to go longer than one week without one good tubbing.

The order has had the desired effect. Not only have the police not found it necessary to make any arrests because of defiance of the order, but the health of the residents has improved greatly, and a welcome reduction of the death rate is looked for in consequence.

CANTELOUPES FOR HARVEY HOUSES

Furnished by Growers of Salt River Valley.

W. F. McCormack, an official connected with the Harvey eating house system of the Santa Fe, arrived in Phoenix yesterday morning to make arrangements for the daily shipment of canteloupes from this region to the houses along the line of the great transcontinental railroad.

The trip to the Salt River Valley was taken for the purpose of insuring consignments of the melons as long as the season lasts, and during his short stay in the city Mr. McCormack paid the valley products a high compliment when he said:

"This is the first year we have used the Salt River Valley canteloupes in the Harvey eating houses, and never before have we found a melon so satisfactory as those sent us from this district. We are using them over the entire system, and the same report is sent in by all our managers—that the melons are first class, and well liked by the patrons of our dining and lunch rooms."

The Harvey System is at present using fifty crates of canteloupes a day from the Glendale shippers, and it is probable that this daily shipment will be increased in size. Mr. McCormack has had a great deal of experience in handling melons, and his endorsement of the Salt River Valley canteloupes will be gratifying to the members of the Canteloupe Growers Association, and to all those who take interest in the valley's agricultural development.

ACCUSED OF MURDER OF HIS YOUNG WIFE

A Virginian Menaced by His Neighbors.

Richmond, Va., July 23.—Accused by a coroner's jury today of murdering his young wife, Henry Clay Beatty, Jr., tonight is in the Henrico county jail here apparently unconcerned and still smoking cigarettes.

Seventeen year old Beulah Beatty, a girl whose relations with Beatty are believed to have led to the tragedy and Paul D. Beatty, a cousin accused who testified at the coroner's inquest that he bought for Henry Clay Beatty, Jr. the shot gun with which the killing was done are held in jail as witnesses.

Public feeling has been so aroused by the developments of the tragedy that the authorities were afraid to

PHOENIX TO HAVE A POSTAL SAVINGS BANK

Announcement Made By Postmaster General Yesterday.

The dispatches yesterday brought the information that Postmaster General Wood had named ten more first class postoffices in which postal savings banks are to be established, there now being only four first class offices now boasting of a banking department. Among the ten new ones named those in the southwest are Phoenix and Albuquerque.

The information it is understood comes as somewhat of a surprise to the local postoffice officials as there has never been a notable demand here for a postal bank nor any application for it on the part of the postmaster.

The postal savings banks were in the beginning quite strongly opposed by merchants and bankers on the theory that they would have a tendency to take out of circulation a large part of the money deposited in them. The banks were first tried in the smaller towns where there was lack of bank facilities, and in cities with large populations of working men, especially foreigners. It has been found that the foreigners are the most liberal patrons of the banks as they have more faith in a government backed institution, than in a private concern however well it may be conducted. But the theory of taking money out of circulation has not been fully realized for most of the money in the postal banks finds its way quickly to the tills of the national banks which are U. S. depositories, and is immediately put at work again. In Phoenix the foreign population, of the sort that sends money to other countries, is small compared with many pay roll towns of even smaller size. Moreover the local banks have always been well conducted and there has been no special demand for a postal bank here. If it is established though it will undoubtedly do considerable business.

THEY HAD NO WARNING.

Two young employees of a florist in Philadelphia, who are supposed to be variously employed in the rear of the establishment, while the boss looks after things in the front, were recently startled by the appearance of the "old man" while they were engaged in a game of checkers.

"The proprietor was justly indignant. 'How is it,' he demanded, 'that I hardly ever find you fellows at work when I come out here?'

"I know," volunteered one of the youths; "it's on account of those rub-
